JAMES MAYNARD KEENEY

As a prosperous rancher and hotel owner James Maynard Keeney was widely and favorably known throughout Oregon and during the period of his residence in Portland he held a secure place in the esteem of its citizens. Of resolute purpose and steaked strength of character, he surmounted obstacles and difficulties which would have discouraged the average man and pressed steadily onward to the goal of success. He was born in Brownsville, Oregon, October 15, 1842. His father, Elias Keeney, crossed the plains in an early day and settled on a donation land claim near Brownsville.

James M. Keeney was reared on the home farm where he remained until he reached the age of eighteen, experiencing many phases of pioneer life in western Oregon. For two years he was a student at the State University and then attended a business college in Portland. After the completion of his course he returned home and when he obtained his majority was given one thousand dollars by his father. With this sum he purchased a flock of sheep in Astington, Oregon, but lost most of them during the ensuing winter, which was unusually severe. After this venture he opened a heavy stable in Arlington and also served as postmaster of the town. Later he entered successful career in Portland, conducting a cigar store at First and Yamhill streets, but through his partner lost the business.

During that time he was offered and accepted the management of a hotel at Shosholo, Oregon, and was so successful that he purchased the property soon afterward. For several years he conducted the business, and then went to Vale, Oregon, where he owned another hotel, which he operated successfully for seven years. Meanwhile he had joined J. N. Burgess in purchasing the Cunningham ranch at Pilot Rock and for eighteen years he was active in the cultivation and improvement of that tract. On disposing of his holdings in eastern Oregon, Mr. Keeney leased in Portland and bought a cherry orchard of one hundred acres near Salem. In 1870 he sold his interests in the ranch. His death occurred September 19, 1923, when he was nearly fifty-eight years of age. For years he fought a losing battle against disease but maintained his remarkable control of the mind, being a man of exceptional will power and determination.

Mr. Keeney was married July 25, 1864, to Miss Elizabeth Matlock, a daughter of Tam J. and Mary E. Matlock. In 1853, when a child of three, Mrs. Keeney's father crossed the plains with his parents, who settled near Eugene, Oregon. In 1873 he crossed to Seppner, Oregon, and embarked in the sheep business. During the great flood at Hapgood in June, 1907, he was seriously injured and his wife was drowned. Their daughter Elizabeth fainted and then narrowly escaped death by drowning.

JONATHAN H. KEENEY

(B. Feb. 4, 1824 - Mo. -D. Jan. 17, 1884)
Have found no record of his parentage.

Jonathan was born in Missouri on Feb. 4, 1824 and married Mary Adeline Lamb who was born in Kentucky on Dec. 28, 1827. At the age of 33 Jonathan and his wife Mary with five children started across the plains in 1857 by ox team, and went to Sonoma County, California. Another child, the sixth, was born on route. In the spring of 1858 they came by boat to Portland, Oregon. From there they went to Linn County, then on to Lane County, near Eugene where he established a farm.

In the spring of 1861 they moved east of the mountains to Umatilla County where Jonathan entered into the industry of raising sheep. It was reported that he was a prominent wool grower of Umatilla County, and a man of high esteem.

Jonathan Keeney died in Umatilla County in 1884 and his wife Mary A. passed away in 1885.

Seven children were born of this union: John Henry, Joseph Watson, Marshall Sherman, Thomas Benton, Calista, Sarah C., Charles Edward. For more detail - see Genealogy charts (Jonathan H. Keeney).

The three oldest sons left the Pilot Rock ranch in Umatilla County and went to establish a ranch near Long Creek, Oregon in 1871.

This Jonathan H. Keeney brought his family across the plains from Missouri the same year as my great grandfather Andrew Jackson Keeney brought his. They both journeyed first to Sonoma, California, and then by boat to Oregon the following year, stopping in Linn County then going on to Lane County to establish ranches. It would seem that they may have been related, perhaps cousins, but no proof of this has yet been established, or even if they were together travelling west to Oregon by way of California.

Joseph Watson Keeney was a son of Jonathan H. Keeney, and Joseph Watson had a son named Bert Keeney who lived in Lane, Oregon - 1910. and he was a cousin to Willard Warren Keeney.

MICHAEL K. KEENEY
born 1804, Greenbrier Co., VA
died 1875; buried at Ohley

NUMERING: Michael Keeneey is a member of the 7th generation of Keeneys in America, starting with Sir Thomas Kenne (Keeneey), born in 1578 in Norfolk, England, migrating to New London, Connecticut in 1639, fifteen years after the Pilgrims. His father, Moses, left Greenbrier Co. (then VA) to settle on Cabin Creek, Kanawha County, about 1815. His grandfather, for whom Keeneey's Mountain is named, settled in Greenbrier County in 1756.

Michael & Elizabeth Keeneey were parents of fourteen children, the last two dying in childhood. The vast majority of them and their offsprings settled in the Kanawha Valley from Belle to Cedar Grove, made their living on or near the river, and raised big families.

CREDITS: The bulk of the information here has been carefully compiled by Labona June Keeneey McKee, 9200 Littleton Rd., NW, North Fort Myers, FL 33903, a great great granddaughter. Much information on the T. Y. Keeneey family and almost all the pictures were provided by the Rev. David A. Sneed, Hico, WV 25854, a great great grandson of Michael Keeneey. GATEWOOD LINE

ELIZABETH GATEWOOD was a member of the sixth generation of the GATEWOOD family in America.

Her father was RAMSON GABRIEL GATEWOOD, born about 1772 in Amherst Co., VA, d. 1-9-1843 and buried at Gatewood Cemetery at the mouth of Slaughter's Creek, adjacent to the WV Turnpike entrance. Her mother was Elizabeth Burke, born about 1775, died before 1850, daughter of Charles Burke, of Amherst County; their marriage was recorded in Amherst County in January 1799, shortly before they settled at the south of Slaughter's Creek, Kanawha County.

Ramson Gabriel Gatewood was the fourth child, second son of AMEROSSE GATEWOOD, born about 1747 in Spottsylvania Co., VA, and his wife MARGARET, whom he married in 1765 in Amherst Co. She was born about 1750. He died in 1804 in Amherst.

Abreege Gatewood was the third son of William Gatewood (b. about 1720 in Essex Co., VA, died after 1780 in Amherst Co.). William, who also lived in Albemarle Co. for a time, married Ann Boswell, widow of John Boswell and daughter of Richard Ransom, Gloucester Co., from whom Ransom Gatewood gets his name. William's brothers were Dudley, Henry, Peter, Larkin and Richard.

HENRY GATEWOOD, father of William, was born in Rappahannock Co., VA before 1700 and married DOROTHY DUDLEY (1695-1754 in Spottsylvania Co.).

From a family line which traces back to King Edward I (1229-1307), who married Eleanor of Castile. By 1722 Dorothy was married to Joseph Baker, who listed the children of Henry as his step-children. Henry relinquished her rights of dower and married Tabitha Collins. There were no children in the second marriage. Henry (and Amy) Gatewood was the fourth child of JOHN & ANI GATEWOOD, the first known Gatewoods in the Virginia colony. John's name first appears in Virginia records 1-13-1663 as witness to a deed in Rappahannock Co. In 1676 he received a deed for 100 acres in South Farnham Parish. The first child, John, was probably born in 1690.

There is no known record of the parents of the first John Gatewood, but one writer says that one of the sons said that he came from England in 1666.

ORGANIZATION OF BAPTIST CHURCH AT WITCHER

April 7, 1889

A council having been previously called for the purpose of organizing a church, the Witcher's Creek Baptist Church was organized April 7, 1889. The following churches and ministers responded to the call to take part in the organization:

Slaughter's Creek: Bro. William Patchell
Hampton: Robert Foster and Barren Sübesser
Kelley's Creek: Warden Hudnell

Sandy Bottom: William Stanley, John Peters
Belcher Church: William Hudnell
Branstow: L. S. Lee

Ministry: Rev. T. P. Holt, Rev. J. C. Cline,
Rev. J. S. Poe, Rev. Thacker

The council was called together by T. F. Holt. The first order was to elect a chairman and secretary. Bro. Holt elected chairman and

L. S. Lee secretary. On motion the council held an advisory call for the purpose of conferring with each as to the advisability of organizing a church, which resulted in a unanimous vote to proceed with the organization of the church and the council then and there recognized the following brothers and sisters as an organized Missionary Baptist Church, to be known as the Witcher's Creek Baptist Church, to wit: THOMAS V. KEENEY, J. C. KEENEY, U. Z. KEENEY, JOHN MARCIN, WILBERN MOORE, J. W. MOORE, W. W. KEENEY, T. G. KEENEY, VAN HUNT, FRANK MOORE, D. S. NOBLE, YULES MARTIN, ROBERT MOORE, EVALINE STANLEY, HANNAH C. KEENEY, AMANDA KEENEY, ELISA KEENEY, DEBORAH BARKER, SALLIE MOORE, LORA YOUNG, JULIA KEENEY, ELIZABETH KEENEY, ELIZABETH NOBLE, SCIP REYNOLDS and LUCY JANE KEENEY, after which the church proceeded to business to first elect deacons and ordain same by the ministers and deacons present.

Brothers W. W. Keeney and John S. Keeney were ordained deacons of the new church on motion of Brother D. R. Noble, elected clerk of the new church.

There being no other business, the church moved to adjourn to meet at their regular church meeting Saturday night before the 2nd Sunday in May 1889.

East Bank Woman Adding To Historic Charm

EAST BANK — A kettle of water boiled on the stove as the greeted her guest at the kitchen door.

"I hope there's enough to write about," she said wistfully. She then proceeded to fix the viewer of a storybook trip into the past. When she was a little girl, Linda Ellis admired the old brick home in East Bank and often visited the stately lady who lived there — Dorothy Matics who was known as Aunt Dot.

"Even at 6, I'd beg the old woman who lived here to let me see the house," Mrs. Ellis said. "I've liked old things and old people since I was old enough to know the difference. I vowed one day I would save this house by hook or crook."

Mrs. Ellis didn't buy the house but the next best thing happened. It is now occupied by her parents, Erma and Edgar Keeney, who purchased the house in 1969.

Built in 1826 by John Harriman, the house is on the National Register of Historic Places. And Mrs. Ellis is helping her parents find primitive handmade furniture that will add to the home's historic charm. Mrs. Ellis lovingly refinishes each piece of furniture herself.

The house has only had three owners in 169 years, Mrs. Ellis said.

First was the Harriman family, then the Matics and now the Keeneys.

When Mrs. Ellis was a little girl she visited "Aunt Dot" Matics who would show her the store where she cracked walnuts, and brought in what is now an upstairs bedroom.

Now Mrs. Keeney says many knock on her door and ask to see the house.

"Most of the time I let them in," Mrs. Keeney said. "I know they have a great interest in history or they wouldn't ask."

However, Mrs. Keeney and her daughter say not much is known about the history of the house.

The bricks were made on the property, they said. John Harriman who built the house was the son of Shadrack Harriman, a pioneer who came to the Kanawha Valley in 1788. Shadrack, who married Joanna Bryner, was attacked and killed by Indians in 1793. John was married to Nancy Morris and the house was at some time occupied by her distant relative Fenton Morris. Mrs. Matson acquired the house from the Morris family.

The initials are SME and the year 1841 is carved below them.

The diary was written by a member of the Matics family.

Mrs. Matics had a daughter whose name was also Dorothy. The younger Dorothy — who coincidentally was Mrs. Keeney's French teacher at East Bank High — left the diary behind. The younger Dorothy writes about mail arriving by train and how she hoped for a letter from her mother. She writes of going to town and returning home by way of the Coalfield ferry.

The house has five bedrooms, a living room, dining room, kitchen and two bathrooms which were added on in the 1920s. It has deep wooden window sills and walls 14 inches thick.

The walls of the east-in kitchen are adorned with antique tiles that Mrs. Ellis has collected. Many of the tiles have been obsolete for more than 100 years, she said.

Among the collections are an iron pot scrubber, wooden hammers, a bean scoop, rug beater, a candle mold, a gadget for skimming the grease off maple syrup, a lid lifter for iron stoves, cow bell, iron food chopper.

In the dining room is a battered rhino cabinet dating back to the 1840s.

"This came from Pocahontas County," Mrs. Keeney said of the cabinet. "In early days traveling carpenters made pieces on the property for food and a place in speed the night."

Also in dining room is a pine safe with bolts at the front for ventilation and another cabinet with three corners which dates back to the early 1800s. Mrs. Keeney, who makes dolls for Cabin Creek Quilts, has tastefully placed some of her works and other primitive dolls throughout the house.

The house is filled with interesting pieces of furniture which Mrs. Ellis has found in West Virginia, Virginia and Ohio. She restores each piece herself and continues to search for just the right piece of primitive furniture that will complement the house.

In the dining room is a battered rhino cabinet dating back to the 1840s.

"This came from Pocahontas County," Mrs. Keeney said of the cabinet. "In early days traveling carpenters made pieces on the property for food and a place in speed the night."

Also in dining room is a pine safe with bolts at the front for ventilation and another cabinet with three corners which dates back to the early 1800s. Mrs. Keeney, who makes dolls for Cabin Creek Quilts, has tastefully placed some of her works and other primitive dolls throughout the house.

The house is filled with interesting pieces of furniture which Mrs. Ellis has found in West Virginia, Virginia and Ohio. She restores each piece herself and continues to search for just the right piece of primitive furniture that will complement the house.
